Dedication

We, the staff of the 1963 Tiger Tale, proudly dedicate this annual to the alumni, who though have graduated, have left much spirit and fond traditions for us to cherish and perpetuate. Your support of our extracurricular activities is an indication of your interest in your Alma Mater. Without the untiring patronage and munificence of you, it would be impossible to have the school we have today.

Each year, members of local chapters develop a program of work based on personal, family, and community needs, and to fulfill these purposes; To promote appreciation of homemaking; to emphasize worthy home membership; to encourage democracy in home and community; to work for good home and family life; to promote international good will; to develop creative leadership; to provide wholesome individual and group recreation and to further interest in home economics.

During this past year, a new chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was organized at Utica. There are 39 members and they are advised by Mrs. Erwina Perterson, Home Economics instructor.

Senior Class Play

This was a warm story of a Reverend and his wife, who, not being able to have any children of their own, adopted the "unadoptables." The children had mixed ancestries including Hawaiian, Burmese, Korean, Indian, Filipino, Mexican, and Chinese, but being brought up in an American Home - - made them typical Americans. In this play you could see the family concerned with typical teen-age problems, some of them quite hilarious. All through the play, you could experience warmth and great human understanding. While much of the play was fictional, a part of it was true - - part of it actually has happened.

Freshman Initiation

"Oh, how terrible it is to eat raw eggs," says Gloria Naber, as did many other Freshmen on September 28, 1962, when the sneaky Sophomores pulled their bag of tricks on them. It's all in fun though, and next year the situation will be changed.

A party was given the same evening for the Freshmen for being good sports, and a return party was given to the Sophomores on November 2, 1962.
